THE MIDLAND THEATRE

The Midland Theatre offers educational and fun workshops that complement Missoula Children's Theatre's (MCT) week long The Princess and The Pea residency—with a focus on nurturing and inspiring young actors in our community.

MIDLAND – STEP ON STAGE

Grace the stage where many legends have performed! Lean stage directions, be a director and act in short scenes with your peers on The Midland stage. Grades: 1 – 12 (tailored to each age group)

MCT – DRAMA QUEST

This Primary level workshop uses role-playing to help students develop positive self-esteem, increase their communication skills and teach constructive group dynamics. Your students will have so much fun - they won't realize that they're learning! Grades 1 – 2

MCT – WHAT IF?

This magic question allows elementary students to use their own creativity in a performance environment and encourages structure through imagination. Grades 3 – 5

MCT – ACTING UP

This informative workshop delves into the basics of the acting craft. Various exercises are used to ease inhibitions while allowing the participants to develop a working strategy for approaching a role. Grades: 6 - 8

MCT – LET'S MAKEUP

Without the support of visual image, the most talented of actors can portray only a narrow spectrum of characters. Make-up is the foundation and the most basic visual image for all performers. This participatory workshop teaches students of all ages by demonstrating corrective, old age and fantasy make-up. Grades: 1 -12

DETAILS: Cost: $6 (scholarships are available) When: July 12-14, 2011 (see registration form for workshop details) Capacity: 30 per workshop, Length: 45 minutes Where: The Midland Theatre
